CONDITION OF THE MARKETS

Wheat Opens Very Dull and a Marked Decline Occurs During the Session.

Corn Was Fairly Steady and Firm Early, but Weak, Heavy and Lower at the Close-Oats Lower-Provisions Weaken with Grain.

MONEY, BUNDS AND STOCKS.

Susiness Does Not Increase, but the Market Continues to Show a Strong Tone. NEW YORK, June 21. - Money on call was basy at 1 21 per cent.

Prime mercantile paper, 4 26 per cent. Sterling exchange was dull but steady at $4.87 for sixty-day bills and $4.89 for demand. The total sales of stocks to-day were 138,028 shares, including the following: Delaware, Lackswanna & Western, 9,050; Erie, 6,500, Lake Shore, 5,325; Louisville & Nashville, 7,-820; Missouri Pacific, 4,103; Northwestern, 5,-870; Reading. 22.000; St. Paul. 24,510; Union Pacific, 8,200; Western Union, 4,125.

The stock market showed no improvement today in amount of business done, but the strong tone which has been a feature of the dealings for the past few days suffered no diminution, and the circle of buyers seemed to have broadened somewhat, though the political events of the day seriously interfered with speculation. Some attempts were made by the "bears" to get prices down, but they were very feeble and mes with no success. The pressure was brought against the market at the opening, and later more especially against St. Paul, but the impression made upon values was measured by the smallest fractions and the effort was soon abandoned. Chicago was a moderate seller, though the telegrams from that center were of a more hopeful tenor than usual of late, the appouncement that the Vanderbilt lines would reduce dressed beef rates being the only bear news of importance, and that had no influence on the market, the effect of recent divi-dends and statements of those lines being felt still. There was a continuance of the covering movement, which probably did more than anything else to give the market its firm appearance, and the best feeling was in the high-priced grangers and Michigan Central. The temper of the professional element was more positively bullish, and London was a buyer, especially toward the close. The opening was barely steady, but early trading developed a strong tone, with Michigan Central in the and advances ranging up to point were established in the first nour. The demand for stocks then slacked off, and though there was no reaction the rate of progress was much slower, and by noon the best figures of the day generally were reached. There was a slight downward tendency, as a result of the efforts of the "bears" against St. Paul after 12 o'clock, but the high prices were well maintained throughout the afternoon, and the dealings became entirely devoid of feature of any kind. The market finally closed dull and about steady at close to the best prices reached. The result of the day's trading is to leave most of the list small fractions higher than last evening, while Rock Island and Burlington & Quincy gained 1; per cent. each, and Michigan Central It per cent.

The general bond market was about the same se usual, with a quiet business on small fluctustions, with a firm tone for most of the day, but the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy, Nebraska extension fours, contributed $387,000, of which $327,000 were in one sale, and the Duluth, South Shore & Atlantic fives, $258,000, to the day's total of $1,387,000. There was no movement in hose bonds, however, and the day was feature-

State and governments were dull and steady. Closing quotations were:

CHICAGO, June 22. - It was about noon when the real fun began in wheat. The morning was dull, and prices ranged slightly better than last night. About noon July dropped from 80 to 80 to, and after a pause tumbled down another ic, to 79 to, or Ic under the closing price last night. The price quoted proved a temporary turning point, and July sold again at 79 to, and other futures railied in proportion. Wheat was very heavy, and prices went lower than ever, closing at the bottom for the session and lie lower than last eight. Closing prices for July were 79 c. Corn was, like wheat, fairly steady and firm early, but weak and heavy and decidedly lower toward the close of the session. About the time of the greatest weakness in wheat there was an attempt to sell corn. July sold early at 49c, then broke to 48jc and up to 49 2 49jc. This was the outside for the day. Between 11:30 and 12:30 prices took a slide, and half an nour before the close July sold down to 47%, where it closed. Oats sold within a le range for July, and closed about ic lower than last night; June closed at 31c; July sold at 30 c to open, then at 31c, and down to 30c, closing at 30 c. Provisions were rather firm early, but weakened some later, when the grains broke. Trading was, however, limited.

July futures closed as follows: Pork, $13.60;
lard, 8.17jc; short-ribs, 7.42jc. The leading futures ranged as follows:

DUN & CO.'S REVIEW.

The Country Is Waiting, and a Season of Inactivity Is Prevailing. NEW YORK, June 22.-Following is R. G.

Dun & Co.'s review of trade for the week ending June 23: The country is waiting, and the inaction of trade closely resembles midsummer dullness. Anxiety about crops has, in great measure, abated. Financial uncertainties have but little present influence, because the narrowing industrial and commercial demands leave large accumulations employed at all financial centers. The political uncertainty engresses attention, and there is little prospect that it will diminish until the ballots have been counted in November. A volume of business still continues which would have been called large a few years ago, but falls more than 10 per cent. below that of last year. The latest reports of exchanges show a decrease of 11 per cent in the aggregate, in comparison with last year, and a decrease of 7 per cent, outside of New York, with twenty-three out of thirty-eight cities reporting a shrinkage. At St. Louis, Kansas City, and New Orleans there are gains, but at Philadelphia, a decrease of 19 per cent, at Cincinpati of 16, at Chicago of 7, at Boston of 6, and at New York of 12 per cent. The shrinkage in the volume of business is accompanied by a decline of prices of som modities generally and an advance in prices of securities. Grain goes down and stocks go to with some reason—crop prospects are decidedly improved, and the favorable weather of late has changed Northwestern expectations materially. Wheat, corn and oats have each declined about 31 cents during the past week, without the heavy trading which would mark the downward tendency as mainly speculative in character. Lard has fallen Oil has declined 3 cents; butter, † cent; eggs, 1 cent and coffee † cent, but cotton is three-sixteenths stronger, the present demand having more influence han the prospective yield. The general average of prices has declined during the week about † of 1 per cent. Reports from interior points are uniformly favorable in tone, for the prospect is considered cheering, though at most points the present transactions are decreasing in volume. Money is nowhere in sharp demand, and the complaints of slowness in collections are much less numerous this week. Good crops give confidence as to the future, even where the inactivity is now most noticeable. In the more important branches of trade no great change is seen. Cotton goods are trade no great change is seen. Cotton goods are in steady but moderate demand; print cloths are strong for 64s, but transactions in men's or women's woolens are moderate, with prices ruling below last year's where foreign competition is felt. The wool market halts, because holders offer no wools, especially at present quotations, having faith in better prices after the fear of change of tariff has passed. It is thought there is some improvement in the boot and shoe trade, and the movement is Just now the iron business has to be considered in connection with the recent improvement in the demand for securities. The stock market has advanced about $1.25 per share, but with indications that the prevailing speculative influences promise only a temporary advance.

More significant is the enlarging demand for in vestment securities, and particularly for bonds of new and promising roads, and yet this demand is apt to appear for a time whenever mactivity checks employment of money in trade or Rail rates prevailing are low and tend lower; the competition of water routes is severe, and the average lake rate for May, 21 cents per bushel, is the lowest on record, except in one year, while the average canal rate, 3.3 cents, is the lowest on record, and at one time grain was taken for 22 cents, the lowest rate yet known, from Buffalo to New York. The theory that railroad building is to be large this year is met by the stubborn fact that sales of steel rails to June 1 have been only 875,000 tons, against 1,614,545 last year to the same date, and shipments only 448,149 tons, against 747,181 last year. Increasing anxiety to sell pig-iron is noted; the best furnaces have been banked, and the Pennsylvania steel-works will stop for repairs in July. In a word, current prices are, to many works, unremunerative. The outgo of gold has not been large, and has been more than met by Treasury disbursements in the purchase of bonds and otherwise, which have exceeded receipts by about $5,000,000 for the week. Nevertheless, foreign trade continges in such shape that gold must go abroad largely, unless the ontward movement of securities continues unchecked. In three weeks exports from New York have fallen 84 per cent. below last year's, while there has been an increase here in imports of 6 per cent. Money is everywhere in abundant supply, and it will doubtless be the policy of the Treasury to prevent any stringency, but unless business becomes rauch more active, little effort to that end will be needed for the next two months. The business failures occurring throughout the country during the last seven days number, for the United States, 176, and for Canada, 28, or a total of 204 as compared with 232 last week, and 235 the week previous to the last. For the corresponding week last year the figures were 197. The Pacific States, with 40 casualties, and Canada with 28, furnish one-third of the total number of failures this week.

OARY AREA DYAD

NO. 2773-CHARADE. An unpleasant thing am I, Good people always pass me by. Some say I'm not fit to live; Say they: "I always trouble give." While two men talk I listen,
When I hear them my eyes glisten;
Hope they do not see me near,
As then my rudeness would appear.

As already you suppose. In men's affairs I stick my nose; Things I hear I love to tattle, For my tongue delights to prattle.

I'm the cause of many a muss, And I'm always in a fuse; No one knows why this should be, Unless it is synecdoche.

Things I tell I do enlarge, It pleases me to see them charge. Sometimes back they some to me; My oily tongue lets me go free. I put the lie on some one else To save my back from cowhide welts; I confidentially explain, And thus their hottest wrath restrain.

Turn me around if you would find
Where good men would have me consigned.
Thus would I cease to curse the world,
And into outer darkness hurled.

Now of my meanness I repent; To quit it all I am intent. I think I have explained quite well Myself, and I will let you tell. UNCLE THEO. MARTINSVILLE, IND. NO. 2774-STAIR PUZZLE
